Gooch Book

I am what I am.

Judge not lest ye be judged.

And in the end, the love
you take is equal to the love you send.

There's nothing new under the sun.

Let he who is without blame cast the first stone.

There's nothing you can do that can't be done.
There's nothing you can
sing that can't be sung.
There's no place you can be that isn't where you're meant to be.
It's easy — All you need is love.

Freedom's just another word for nothin' more
to lose.

Seek and ye shall find,
ask and it shall be given, knock and it shall be opened.

It's been a long time
comin'
It's goin' to be a long time gone.

And it appears to be a long time,
Yes a long, long time
before the dawn.
Turn, turn any corner.

Time
Is tappin on my forehead,
Hanging from my mirror,
Rattling the teacups,
And I wonder . . .

Time it was,
And what a time it was,
It was
A time of innocence
A time of confidences Long ago, It must be, I have a photograph
Preserve your memories;
They're all that's left you.

Hang on to your hopes,
my friend.

That's any easy thing to say.

But if your hopes should pass away
Simply pretend that you can build them again.

Try to realize it's all within yourself
No one else can make you change . . .

You may say I'm a dreamer
but I'm only the only one.

I hope someday you'll join us and the world will be as one . . .

So much to do; so little
done.

A picture is a poem
without words.

It is the beginning of the end.

Cheer up, the worst is yet to come.

A good laugh is sunshine
in a house.

We are never deceived;
we deceive ourselves.

Good, to forgive; Best,
to forget.

Our true nationality is Mankind.

Lost time is never found again.

The best prophet of the future is the past.

Silence is more eloquent
than words.

Enjoy the present day;
trusting very little to the morrow.

Tomorrow life is too late;
live today.

United we stand; divided
we fall.

Things do not change;
we change.

I get by with a little
help from my friends,
I get high with a little
help from my friends,
Gonna try with a little
help from my friends . . .
. . . With a little help
from my friends . . .

I used to get mad at my school
The teachers that taught me weren't cool
You're holding me down,
turning me round
Filling me up with your rules.

I have to admit it's getting better
A little better all the
time . . .

And it really doesn't matter if I'm wrong
I'm right
Where I belong I'm right
Where I belong.
See the people standing

there who disagree and never win
And wonder why they don't get in my door.

We were talking . . . about the love we all . . .
Could share . . . when we find

it
To try out best to hold it there — with our love.

With our love — we could save the world —
if they only knew.

Any fool can make a rule
And every fool will mind
it.

He slept beneath the moon
He bashed beneath the sun;
He lived a like of going
to do,
And died with nothing
done.

You have no more right
to consume happiness
without producing it,
than to consume wealth
without producing it.

He who has a thousand friends has not a friend to spare,
And he who has one enemy

shall meet him
everywhere.

Those who can not remember
the past are condemned
to repeat it.

What is lovely never
dies,
But passes into other loveliness.

When faith is lost, when honor dies, the man is,
dead.

A thing of beauty is a
joy forever;
Its loveliness increases;
it will never pass into nothingness.

When you've seen beyond yourself —
then you may find, peace of mind, is waiting there —

And time will come when you see
we're all one, and life
flows on within
you and without you.

Thinking it over, I've been sad Thinking it over, I'd be more than glad

To change . . . when you're crippled
inside.

Ask me and I will play
All the love that I hold inside.

Away, I'd rather sail away
Like a swan that's here
and gone.
A man gets tied up to the ground,
He gives the world its saddest sound.
Its saddest sound.

I've looked at life from both sides now
From win and lose and still some how It's life's illusions I recall
I really don't know life
at all.

Speak out, you got to speak out against the madness, you got to speak your mind, if you dare.

You can shine your shoes
and wear a suit
You can comb your hair
and look quite cute
You can hide your face
behind a smile,
One thing you can't hide

Oh my love for the first
time in my life my mind
is wide open Oh my lover for the first
time in my life my mind
can feel.
— I feel sorrow, oh I feel dreams
everything is clear
in our world.

A man must not swallow more beliefs than he can digest.

Yesterday,
All my troubles seemed
so far away . . .
Now it looks as though they're here to stay . . .
Oh, I believe in yesterday.

The race is not to the swift;
Nor riches to the man of knowledge;
Nor to the wise;
But time and chance happen
to them all,
For a man knows not his fate.

Senior Class Officers

Regional Advisory Council

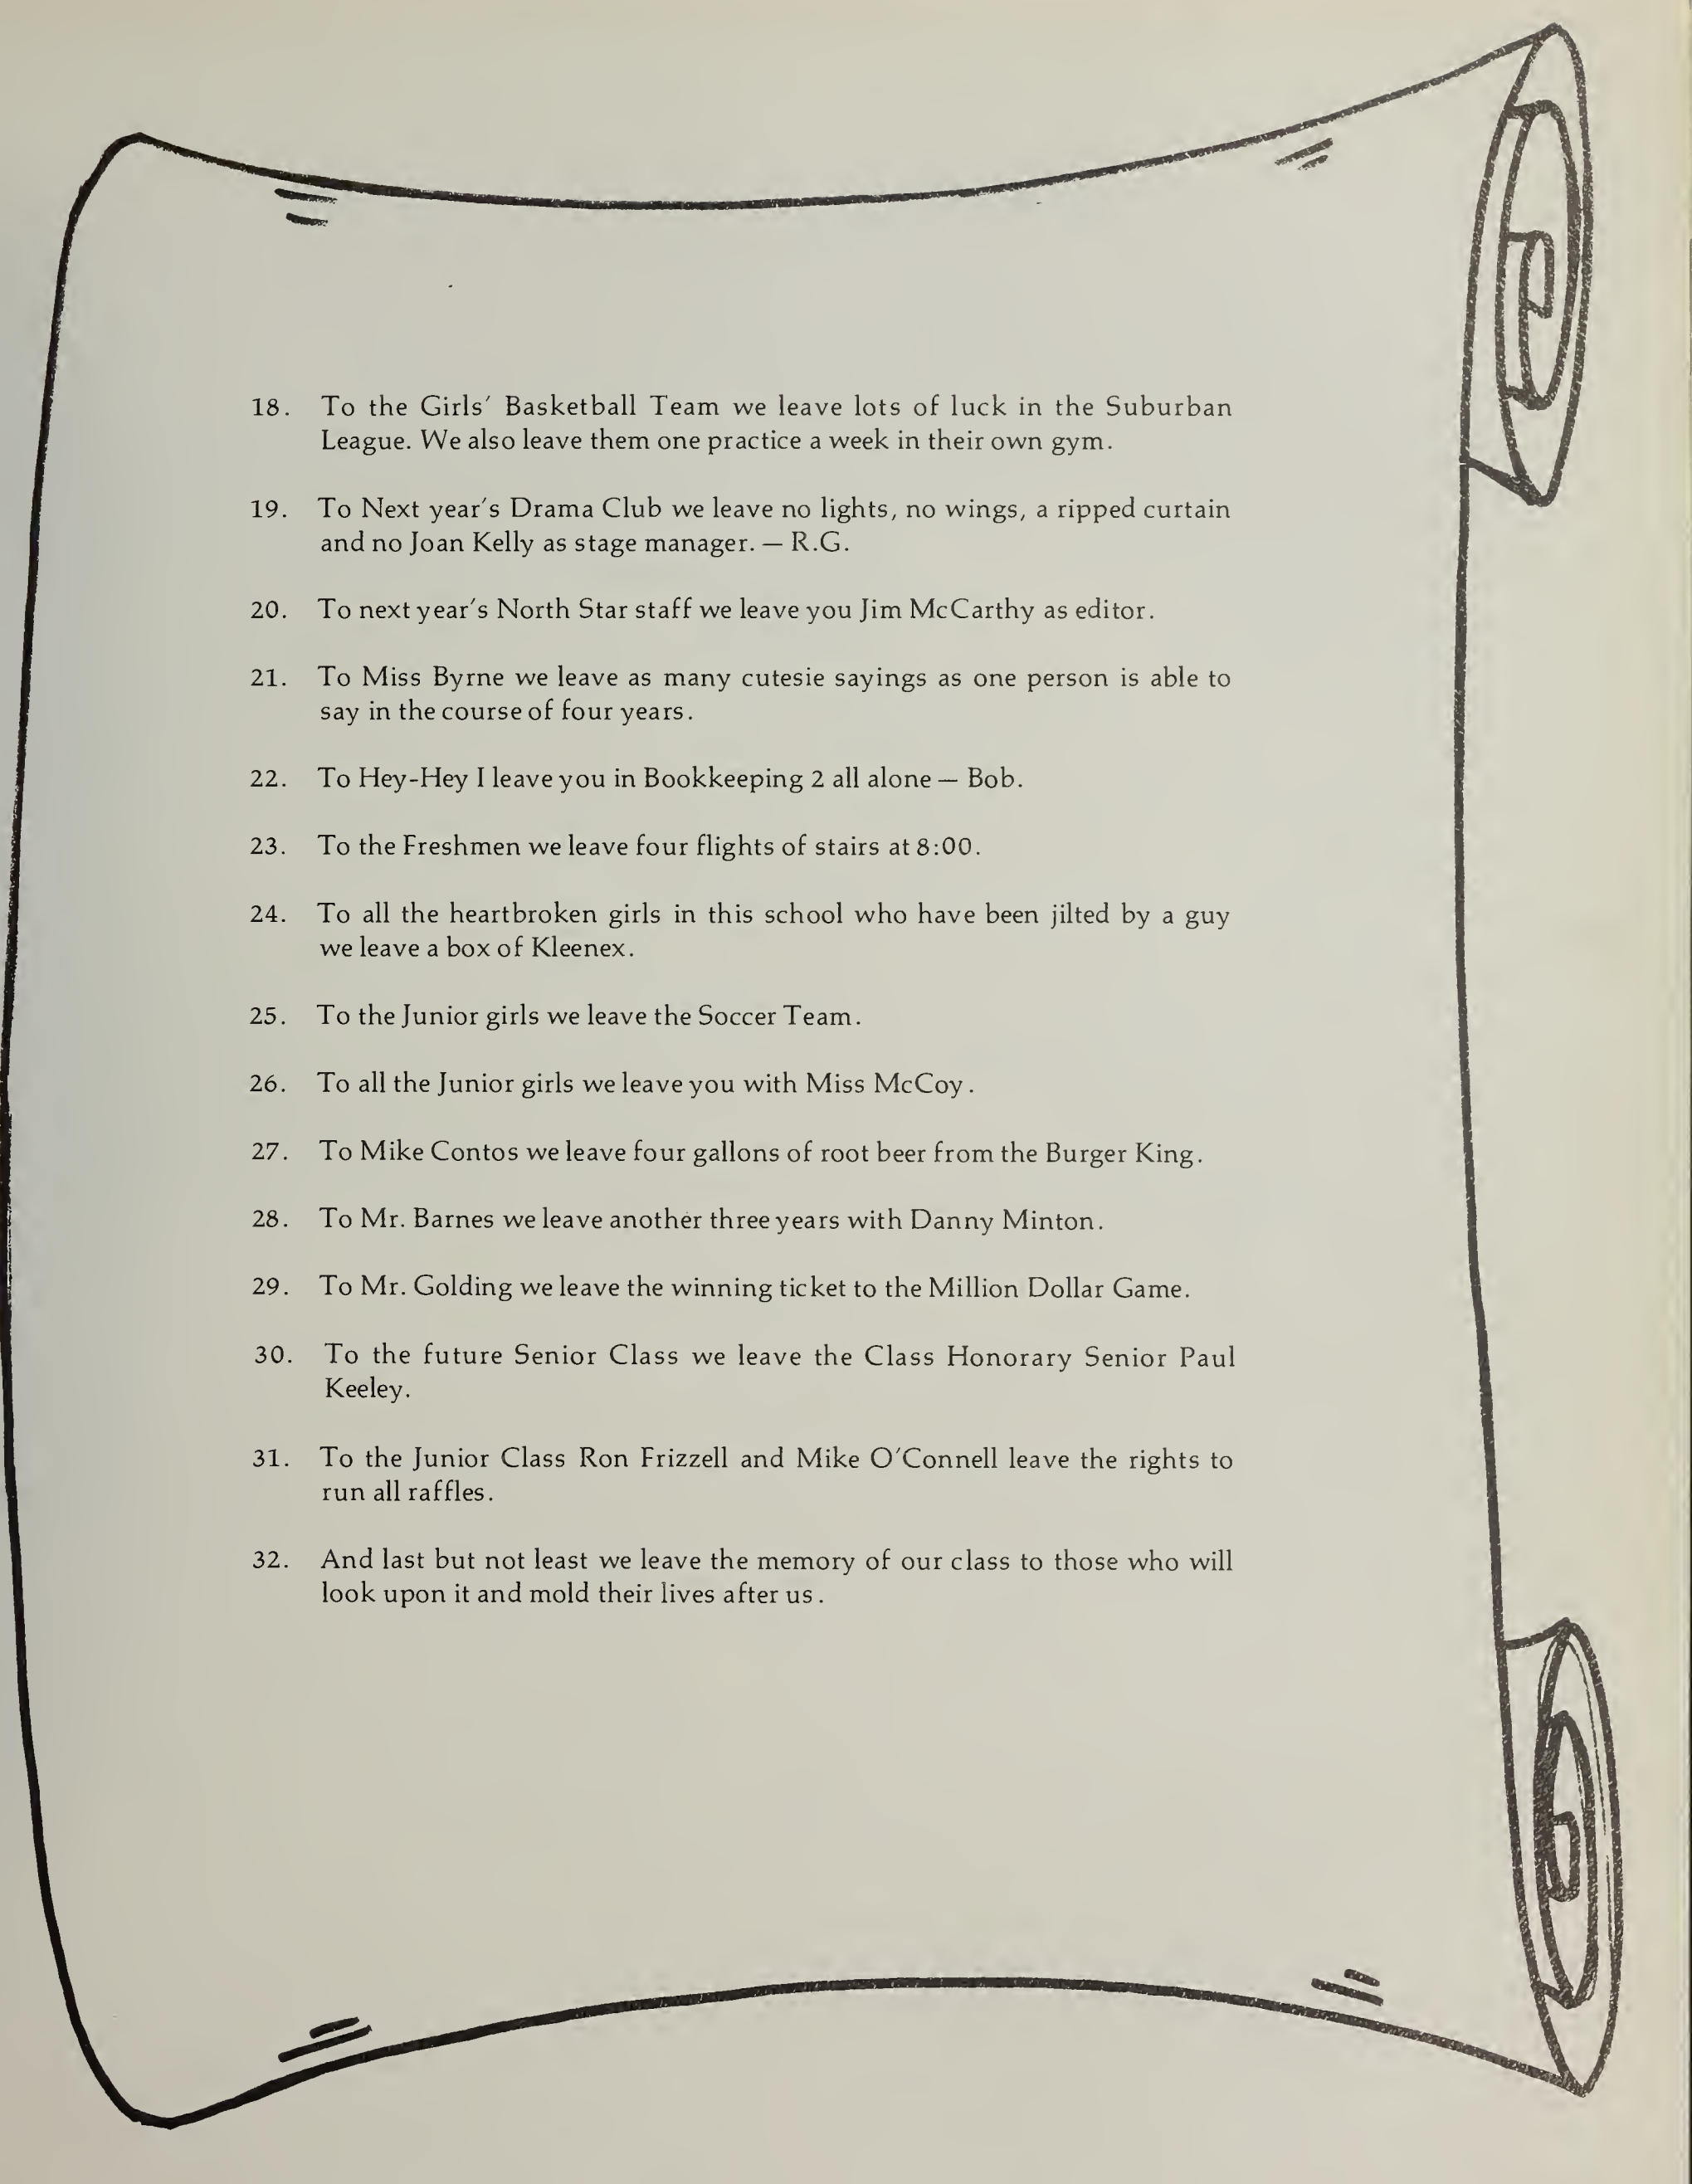

Honorary Senior: Paul Keeley

1. To the oncoming Freshmen we leave any old socks, lunches, or notes that they might find in our fourth floor lockers. Use them wisely.
  2. We leave to Miss Medaglia the water fountain that she loves so much to guard between periods.
  3. We leave Mr. Tilly another sociable class.
  4. To next year's Senior class, we leave the consolation that this is your last year.
  5. To any people who are in Mrs. Jensen's class next year we leave earplugs.
  6. To Mr. King we leave the Pythagorean Theorem.
  7. To Mr. Peterson we leave a guarded parking space, so he will always have it, and won't have to be late because there were no spaces left.
  8. To Mr. Fallon we leave a paper corrector, so that he won't have to blame "The Boy" anymore for his mistakes.
  9. We leave to Mr. Pelletier a Manet Staff as good as this year's!
  10. To next year's U.S. History classes we leave our history term papers, for a small fee
  11. To next year's Senior Class we leave an extra month of school. ('til June).
  12. We leave Miss McCoy a lie detector for the obvious reasons.
  13. To Mr. Tilly Period 6 leaves a rock.
  14. To the Junior Spirit Committee we leave a key to the Art Room.
  15. To next year's football team we leave a Turkey Day Victory to make it four in a row.
  16. To the basketball team we leave the Tech Tourney.
  17. To Miss Bollen we leave enough money to have any speaker she wants so she won't need to have any more coffee sales.

18. To the Girls' Basketball Team we leave lots of luck in the Suburban League. We also leave them one practice a week in their own gym.
  19. To Next year's Drama Club we leave no lights, no wings, a ripped curtain and no Joan Kelly as stage manager. — R.G.
  20. To next year's North Star staff we leave you Jim McCarthy as editor.
  21. To Miss Byrne we leave as many cutesie sayings as one person is able to say in the course of four years.
  22. To Hey-Hey I leave you in Bookkeeping 2 all alone — Bob.
  23. To the Freshmen we leave four flights of stairs at 8:00.
  24. To all the heartbroken girls in this school who have been jilted by a guy we leave a box of Kleenex.
  25. To the Junior girls we leave the Soccer Team.
  26. To all the Junior girls we leave you with Miss McCoy.
  27. To Mike Contos we leave four gallons of root beer from the Burger King.
  28. To Mr. Barnes we leave another three years with Danny Minton.
  29. To Mr. Golding we leave the winning ticket to the Million Dollar Game.
  30. To the future Senior Class we leave the Class Honorary Senior Paul Keeley.
  31. To the Junior Class Ron Frizzell and Mike O'Connell leave the rights to run all raffles.
  32. And last but not least we leave the memory of our class to those who will look upon it and mold their lives after us.

Class Advisors

Mrs. Howard

At the end of our Junior year, the Senior Class to-be lost one of their most valuable assets in Mrs. Howard, the Senior Class Advisor. It is through her efforts that the Senior Class is where it is today, as she was the one who really stood them on their own two feet. We can never thank her enough for all she has done and wish her all the luck in the world.

Mr. Verenis

What can we say about Mr. Verenis. He has been great. We owe a great deal to him, for he has time and again come through in fine fashion when asked to contribute to the welfare of the Senior Class. He has been fantastic in every respect and we can never show our appreciation enough for the work he has done.
